DEFINITIONS

Career Planning—A review of skills and interests to develop a plan to find work options available to you.

Career Counseling—A service to help you understand your job options to make choices about education, life and employment.

Benefits Counseling—A free service offered by many Ticket to Work service providers to beneficiaries thinking about work or looking for jobs, to explain how working will affect their federal and state benefits.

Post Employment Support—Support services and continued access to resources such as job training and counseling after you are working Disability—a situation when you are not be able to engage in any substantial gainful activity (SGA) because of a medically-determinable physical or mental impairment. The impairment may either be expected to result in death, or has lasted or is expected to last for a continuous period of at least 12 months.

Employment Network (EN)— Public or private groups that contract with Social Security to provide free job support services to people who receive Social Security disability benefits age 18 through 64 who are interested in working towards the goal of replacing their benefits with income from a job. Employment Networks may offer career planning help, job leads and job placement, ongoing employment support and benefits counseling.

Red Book—The reference on employment-related rules for Social Security disability benefits and the policies in place to help beneficiaries like you reach your work goals. The book is a guide to Work Incentives, and other disability-related policies and programs like Ticket to Work

Ticket To Work—A program that provides people receiving Social Security disability benefits (beneficiaries) more choices for receiving employment services.

Job Placement—A combination of support such as counseling and skill assessment used to find and secure a job.

Job Training—Support to help you get ready for a job by giving you information about the position and allowing you to perform some activities that you will do on a daily basis as part of the job.

Social Security—an independent agency of the U.S. federal government that administers Social Security, a social insurance program consisting of retirement, disability, and survivors' benefits

Vocational Rehabilitation— State services that may offer intensive training, education, rehabilitation and other job supports for people with disabilities who want to work.
